Dear Ms. Thangavelu:

The National Republican Congressional Committee (FED ID# C00075820) is in receipt of your Request for Additional Information dated March 5, 2008, concerning our 2007 year-end FEC report.

With respect to the transfers and corresponding memo-entries on Line 12: The memo-entries from Senate Majority Fund, Impact America, Bluegrass Committee, KPAC, and Battle Born PAC (which total $ 75,000) accompany the transfer of $ 74,000 from the PAC Challenge Committee.

The memo-entries from William Goodwin, Thomas Pruitt, Alan Kirshner, Theodore J. Linhart, Christopher J. Lansing, and Marc Goldman (which total $ 32,300) accompany the transfer of $ 31,842.37 from the Cantor Joint Fundraising Committee. We received aggregate transfers from the Cantor Joint Fundraising Committee during 2007 in the amount of $ 134,876.01, transfers which were accompanied by memo-entries totaling $ 136,193.61.

All other memo-entries on this year-end report (totaling $ 125,659) accompany the transfer from Chabot Ohio Victory Committee in the amount of $ 85,613.38.

Your letter indicates that the Committee disclosed both independent and coordinated expenditures for the same candidates. The Committee complied with all rules and regulations regarding independent expenditures. Committee staff working on independent expenditures are not permitted to have contact about their work with the campaigns, regular Committee staff, or Committee leadership. The filings are correct as filed and meet the standard established by the Commission and the courts.

Sincerely:

Keith A. Davis, Treasurer

National Republican Congressional Committee
